

Participating in FpML®

1. Participating Organizations

FpML is currently being implemented by major institutions world-wide. Both buy-side and sell-side firms are using FpML to meet their A2A and B2B needs for OTC derivatives. The FpML community is open to inquiries about your implementation and/or needs for OTC derivative processing. Contacts are available for businesses looking to get a prospective look at how FpML is currently being used in the market today.

The following alphabetical list represents firms actively participating in developing FpML®, as well as those firms supporting the FpML effort:
